

Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) for Research Cooperation and Policy Dialogue between Strategic Vision Institute (SVI), Islamabad and Consortium for Asia Pacific and Eurasian Studies (CAPES)

The Strategic Vision Institute (SVI), Islamabad, and the Consortium for Asia Pacific and Eurasian Studies (CAPES) have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to enhance cooperation in research and policy dialogue in the fields of Asia Pacific and Eurasian Studies on January 6, 2026, at the Strategic Vision Institute (SVI).

The Memorandum of Understanding was signed by Dr. Naeem Salik, Executive Director of the Strategic Vision Institute (SVI), and Dr. Faisal Javaid, Senior Vice President of CAPES, underscoring both institutions' commitment to advancing joint initiatives in research and policy engagement. Under the MoU, SVI and CAPES will collaborate in diverse areas, including Asia Pacific and Eurasian Studies, geopolitics, international relations, security, and strategy policy development, joint research, training programs, seminars, and academic conferences.

Dr. Naeem Salik, while speaking at the signing ceremony, said the partnership would open new avenues for research and intellectual exchange. The Institute is dedicated to strengthening research linkages that contribute to a deeper understanding of regional and global issues, he noted.

Dr. Faisal Javaid, Senior Vice President of CAPES, lauded the initiative, saying it would bring together scholars and researchers to examine the evolving dynamics of the Asia Pacific and Eurasian regions. He also acknowledged the timely signing of the MoU between the two institutes.

CAPES | CONSORTIUM FOR ASIA PACIFIC & EURASIAN STUDIES

