H.E. FAISAL NIAZ TIRMIZI

AMBASSADOR OF PAKISTAN TO THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

The Russia–Pakistan Eurasian Forum 2025, scheduled to be held in Moscow on 16–17 December 2025 under the theme “Forging Connectivity and Exploring People-to-People Partnership for a New Era,” represents a timely and forward-looking platform for reinforcing our multifaceted engagement with the Russian Federation and the broader Eurasian region.

Bringing together Parliamentarians, government officials, policy experts, business leaders, academics, and cultural representatives from both countries, the forum focuses on connectivity that aligns with Pakistan’s vision of focusing on regional integration through various linkages including economic corridors, energy cooperation and trade facilitation. The forum underlines synergies between Pakistan’s geostrategic location and Russia’s Eurasian outreach. The forum is also expected to dilate upon the promotion of shared desire of both countries to broaden and deepen mutual understanding and explore new avenues of cooperation in ever changing global environment.

I am confident that the discussions at the forum will provide action-oriented recommendations and will help to chalk out a roadmap for a more connected, cooperative, and mutually beneficial Pakistan–Russia partnership in the years ahead.

РОССИЯ–ПАКИСТАН ЕВРАЗИЙСКИЙ ФОРУМ 2025, запланированный на 16–17 декабря 2025 года в Москве под девизом «Налаживание связей и укрепление партнерства в сфере общественной дипломатии на рубеже новой эры», представляет собой своевременную и перспективную платформу для укрепления нашего многостороннего взаимодействия с Российской Федерацией и более широким евразийским регионом.

Объединяя парламентариев, правительственные чиновников, экспертов в области политики, бизнес– лидеров, ученых и представителей культуры обеих стран, форум фокусируется на вопросах взаимосвязи, соответствующих видению Пакистана, направленному на региональную интеграцию посредством различных связей, включая экономические коридоры, энергетическое сотрудничество и упрощение торговых процедур. Форум подчеркивает синергию между геостратегическим положением Пакистана и евразийским влиянием России. Ожидается также, что форум будет способствовать продвижению общего стремления обеих стран к расширению и углублению взаимопонимания и изучению новых путей сотрудничества в постоянно меняющейся глобальной среде.

Я уверен, что дискуссии на форуме дадут конкретные рекомендации и помогут разработать дорожную карту для более тесного, взаимовыгодного и основанного на сотрудничестве пакистано–российского партнерства в предстоящие годы.

Н.Е. ALBERT KHOREV

AMBASSADOR OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION TO THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN

The Embassy of the Russian Federation in the Islamic Republic of Pakistan welcomes the most timely launch of the Pakistan–Russia Eurasian Forum 2025 titled “Forging Connectivity and Exploring People-to-People Partnership for a New Era” that is being held in a period marked by increased multifaceted bilateral dialogue between our two countries.

This platform has every chance to serve as an important link between Russian and Pakistani academic and expert communities. The Forum is expected to considerably contribute to analysis of bilateral ties between Moscow and Islamabad, in particular, and the developments within the vast Eurasian region, in general.

There are no doubts that the upcoming discussion and exchange of views would eventually allow to achieve a new level of expertise on Russia–Pakistan relations with a focus on their impact on regional processes, hence unveiling new routes and options for further progress in this direction.

Посольство Российской Федерации в Исламской Республике Пакистан приветствует весьма своевременный запуск российско–пакистанского евразийского форума под девизом «Налаживание связей и укрепление партнерства в сфере общественной дипломатии на рубеже новой эры», который проводится в период, характеризующийся активизацией многовекторного двустороннего диалога между нашими странами.

Данная площадка имеет все шансы стать важным связующим звеном между академическим и экспертным сообществами России и Пакистана. Ожидается, что форум внесет значимый вклад в анализ двусторонних связей между Москвой и Исламабадом в частности, и развития ситуации в обширном евразийском регионе в целом.

Несомненно, предстоящая дискуссия и обмен мнениями в конечном итоге позволят достичь нового уровня изучения российско–пакистанских отношений с акцентом на их влияние на региональные процессы, представив, таким образом, новые пути и предложения по достижению дальнейшего прогресса на данном направлении.

PROF. OLEG SLOBOTCHNIKOV

RECTOR, UNIVERSITY OF WORLD CIVILIZATIONS, RUSSIA (UWC)

Россия–Пакистан Евразийский форум 2025 является важным мероприятием в развитии не только дипломатических, культурных и научных контактов между Россией и Пакистаном, но и многообещающим затачом новой вехи в продвижении общественной дипломатии и «мягкой силы» между нашими странами и нациями.

Деловые связи, привлечение инвестиций, активизация торговли и трансфер передовых технологий, – все эти направления напрямую зависят от благополучия и динамики укрепления взаимоотношений между людьми, общественными организациями и медиа России и Пакистана, залогом расширения контекстуальной значимости стратегического партнерства между нашими странами.

Университет мировых цивилизаций приветствует инициативу проведения форума и выражает надежду на установление плодотворных отношений с Пакистаном в будущем.»

The Russia–Pakistan Eurasian Forum 2025 is an important event in the development of the diplomatic, cultural and scientific ties between Russia and Pakistan as well as a promising beginning of a new milestone in the public diplomacy and soft power promotion between our countries and nations.

The business relations, mutually profitable investments, trade enhancement, and advanced technologies transfer – all these areas directly depend on the well-being and dynamics of strengthening relationships between people, public organizations, and media in Russia and Pakistan, which can be marked as a driving force of expanding the contextual significance of the strategic partnership between our countries.

The University of World Civilizations welcomes the initiative of the Russia–Pakistan Eurasian Forum 2025 and expresses a strong hope for advancing a fruitful and inspiring path of the relations with Pakistan in the future.

PROF. DR ZABTA KHAN SHINWARI

VICE CHANCELLOR, FEDERAL URDU UNIVERSITY OF ARTS, SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY ISLAMABAD

It is a pleasure to extend a warm welcome to all participants of the Pakistan–Russia Eurasia Forum 2025. On behalf of Federal Urdu University of Arts, Science & Technology, I commend our colleagues at the Zhirinovsky University of World Civilizations and the Consortium for Asia–Pacific and Eurasian Studies (CAPES) for convening this timely and important forum.

At FUUAST we believe that universities must lead in building bridges across cultures, disciplines, and regions. This Forum—focused on connectivity, people-to-people engagement, and practical cooperation—reflects the very mission of higher education: to generate knowledge, foster mutual understanding, and translate ideas into actionable partnerships that serve the public good.

The challenges facing the Eurasian region today—ranging from non-traditional security risks to socio-economic development and connectivity—demand collaborative, interdisciplinary, and sustained responses. We are confident that the discussions and networks formed here will help advance research collaborations, student and faculty exchanges, and concrete projects that benefit both societies.

I extend my gratitude to all scholars, policymakers, practitioners, youth delegates, and cultural representatives for their participation. Your expertise and engagement will be crucial in shaping pragmatic recommendations and long-term initiatives emerging from this Forum.

I wish the Forum every success and look forward to future cooperation that deepens the academic and cultural ties between our institutions and nations.

С удовольствием приветствую всех участников Пакистано-российского Евразийского форума 2025. От имени Федерального университета искусств, науки и технологий урду я выражаю признательность нашим коллегам из Университета мировых цивилизаций имени Жириновского и Консорциума по изучению Азиатско-Тихоокеанского региона и Евразии (CAPES) за организацию этого своевременного и важного форума.

В FUUAST мы считаем, что университеты должны играть ведущую роль в построении мостов между культурами, дисциплинами и регионами. Этот форум, ориентированный на взаимосвязь, взаимодействие между людьми и практическое сотрудничество, отражает саму миссию высшего образования: генерировать знания, способствовать взаимопониманию и преобразовывать идеи в действенные партнерства, служащие общественному благу.

Вызовы, стоящие перед Евразийским регионом сегодня, — от нетрадиционных угроз безопасности до социально-экономического развития и взаимосвязи, — требуют совместных, междисциплинарных и последовательных ответных мер. Мы уверены, что дискуссии и созданные здесь сети будут способствовать развитию научного сотрудничества, обмену студентами и преподавателями, а также реализации конкретных проектов, приносящих пользу обоим обществам.

Я выражаю благодарность всем ученым, политикам, практикам, молодежным делегатам и представителям культуры за их участие. Ваш опыт и вовлеченность будут иметь решающее значение для формирования прагматичных рекомендаций и долгосрочных инициатив, вытекающих из этого форума.

Желаю форуму всяческих успехов и надеюсь на дальнейшее сотрудничество, которое укрепит академические и культурные связи между нашими учреждениями и странами

MESSAGE FROM THE ORGANIZERS

Eurasian regional transformation. As global dynamics shift toward multipolarity, the partnership between Pakistan and Russia is gaining new relevance, driven not only by strategic considerations but also by the recognition that a long-term stability and development depend on strengthened educational linkages, scientific collaboration, business connectivity, and people-to-people engagement. The Forum provides a platform to explore these opportunities through informed dialogue and collaborative vision. Over the next two days, the participants will examine a broad range of themes—from the non-traditional security to socio-economic stability, from a regional connectivity to the youth diplomacy. A wide range of the discussions is aimed at generating practical insights, encouraging innovative cooperation, and contributing to a shared understanding of how Pakistan and Russia can work together for a stronger and sustainable regional development. We extend our sincere gratitude to all partners, speakers, and delegates whose support and participation have made this Forum possible. Your presence strengthens our collective efforts and aspirations to build an enduring academic, cultural, and economic bridges across Eurasia. We wish all participants a meaningful and productive engagement.

Для нас большая честь приветствовать известных ученых, политиков, дипломатов, лидеров бизнеса, представителей средств СМИ Пакистана и России, молодежи, на РОССИЯ-ПАКИСТАН ЕВРАЗИЙСКОМ ФОРУМЕ 2025 года. Этот форум отражает приверженность наших институтов углублению академического, культурного и социально-экономического сотрудничества между Пакистаном и Российской Федерацией в решающий момент трансформации Евразийского региона. По мере того, как глобальная динамика международных отношений смещается в сторону многополярности, партнерство между Пакистаном и Россией приобретает новую актуальность, обусловленную не только стратегическими соображениями, но и признанием того, что долгосрочная стабильность и развитие зависят от укрепления академических связей, научного сотрудничества, деловых контактов и взаимодействия между людьми. Форум предоставляет платформу для изучения этих возможностей посредством утверждения всестороннего диалога и совместного видения. В течение следующих двух дней участники рассмотрят широкий спектр тем — от нетрадиционной безопасности до социально-экономической стабильности, от региональных связей до молодежной дипломатии. Проблематика диалога и дискуссий направлена на выработку практических идей, поддержку инновативного сотрудничества и содействие общему пониманию того, как Пакистан и Россия могут работать вместе для более устойчивого регионального развития. Мы выражаем нашу искреннюю благодарность всем партнерам, докладчикам и делегатам, чья поддержка и участие сделали возможным проведение этого форума. Ваше присутствие укрепляет наши коллективные усилия и стремления к построению прочных академических, культурных и экономических мостов через Евразию. Мы желаем всем участникам значимого и продуктивного взаимодействия.

Dr. Roxolana Zigón & Dr. Faisal Javaid

ABOUT THE FORUM

The Russia–Pakistan Eurasian Forum 2025, jointly organized by the Zhirinovsky University of World Civilizations (Moscow), the Federal Urdu University of Arts, Science & Technology (FUUAST), Islamabad, and the Consortium for Asia–Pacific and Eurasian Studies (CAPES), is a premier academic and policy platform dedicated to advancing cooperation between Pakistan and Russia within the broader Eurasian landscape.

Held on 16–17 December 2025 in Moscow, the Forum brings together scholars, policymakers, diplomats, business leaders, media professionals, and youth representatives to discuss shared opportunities and challenges shaping regional and global dynamics. The event reflects the growing commitment of both countries to enrich bilateral relations through multidimensional engagement.

Centered around the theme “Forging Connectivity and Exploring People-to-People Partnership for a New Era,” the Forum focuses on three major pillars:

Non-Traditional Security – addressing emerging challenges such as climate change, cyber threats, health security, and regional stability.

Socio-Economic Stability – exploring pathways for enhanced trade, investment, enterprise collaboration, education, and cultural diplomacy.

Regional Development & Connectivity – examining infrastructure, energy, and transport corridors; digital and academic connectivity; and Pakistan’s strategic role as a gateway linking Russia and Central Asia with South Asia.

The Forum features four plenary sessions, cultural engagements, academic presentations, and networking opportunities designed to foster long-term partnerships. By promoting dialogue, collaboration, and shared understanding, this Forum aims to contribute meaningfully to the evolving architecture of Eurasian cooperation.

The initiative underscores the belief that connectivity—whether through ideas, education, culture, or infrastructure—is the foundation of a stable, prosperous, and inclusive regional future.

FORUM CONCEPT

The conference aims to bring together policymakers, business leaders, academia, and cultural experts to discuss and explore opportunities for enhancing economic connectivity and people-to-people contact between Pakistan and Russia. The goal is to promote mutual understanding, cooperation and sustainable development through collaborative efforts in trade, investment, energy, infrastructure, education, cultural exchange and youth diplomacy to strengthen bilateral ties between the two countries.

This timely initiative will operationalize the shared goals of connectivity (Greater Eurasian Cooperation) and people-to-people contact. Moving beyond symbolism, the forum will focus on practical, project-based cooperation.

By convening at a premier institute, the forum will highlight the critical role of technological sovereignty, innovation, and scientific collaboration as the foundation of a modern, resilient Pakistan – Russia relationship. It will also emphasize Pakistan's role as a cultural partner and a key logistical and economic gateway in South Asia, crucial for Russia's broader connectivity vision.

FORUM OBJECTIVES

The Forum seeks to:

- Strengthen Pak-Russia bilateral relations through academic exchanges, youth engagement, scientific collaboration, business partnerships & cultural diplomacy.
- Promote Pakistan's role as a pivotal logistic & economic hub linking Russia & Central Asia to South Asia.
- Enhance people-to-people contact through education, cultural diplomacy & media cooperation.
- Contribute to the Greater Eurasian Cooperation by creating a practical roadmap for long-term collaboration.
- Elaborate strategically vital Initiatives to be addressed to the respected governmental, NGOs, business institutions and communities in Russia and Pakistan for eliminating the borders on the way of closer ties.
- Signing up an Agreement of Collaboration between University of World Civilizations, Moscow, Russia and CAPES /FUUAST

Post-Event Report

Pakistan–Russia Eurasian Forum 2025

“Forging Connectivity and Exploring People-to-People Partnership for a New Era”

Dates: 16–17 December 2025

Venue: University of World Civilizations (UWC), Moscow, Russian Federation

Time: 10:30 AM – 5:00 PM

1. Background and Objectives

The first Pakistan–Russia Eurasian Forum 2025 was successfully held in Moscow on 16–17 December 2025 at the University of World Civilizations (UWC). The Forum was jointly organized by the Zhirinovsky University of World Civilizations, Consortium for Asia-Pacific and Eurasian Studies (CAPES), and the Federal Urdu University of Arts, Science & Technology (FUUAST), Islamabad.

The primary objective of the Forum was to strengthen Pakistan–Russia relations through public diplomacy, academic dialogue, and people-to-people engagement, with a particular focus on non-traditional security, regional connectivity, economic cooperation, and youth and cultural exchanges within the broader Eurasian context.

2. Participation and Representation

The Forum brought together a wide spectrum of stakeholders, including:

- Senior diplomats and ambassadors from Pakistan and Russia
- Policymakers and legislators
- Academics and researchers from leading universities and think tanks
- Media professionals, students, and civil society representatives

Key participation included senior officials from the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Embassy of Pakistan in Moscow, Russian Ambassador to Pakistan university leadership, and leading scholars from both countries.

3. Opening Session and Key Messages

The opening session emphasized the growing relevance of public diplomacy and academic cooperation in contemporary international relations.

- Ambassador of Pakistan to the Russian Federation, Faisal Niaz Tirmizi, highlighted the increasing convergence between Pakistan and Russia on regional connectivity, trade, and people-to-people relations, describing the Forum as a reflection of pragmatic cooperation in Eurasia. He underscored the symbolic significance of 16 December, recalling shared experiences of terrorism in both countries and reaffirmed Pakistan's commitment to peace, stability, and counter-terrorism cooperation. He highlighted that Pakistan and Russia are building connections through their youth and research communities.
- Russian Ambassador to Pakistan, Albert P. Khorev (online), emphasized that Pakistan–Russia relations have entered a new dynamic phase, where public diplomacy, academic exchanges, and expert networks form the backbone of bilateral engagement.
- Ambassador Alexey Pavlovsky, Director of the Second Asian Department, Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, highlighted the potential for expanding bilateral trade, including the need for reliable financial and settlement mechanisms, and noted Russia's interest in cooperation between Pakistan and the Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU).
- Prof. Dr. Zabta Khan Shinwari, Vice Chancellor of the Federal Urdu University of Arta, Science & Technology (FUUAST), emphasized that Eurasian connectivity is a vital pathway for shared progress and prosperity, particularly in higher education and research collaboration. He said that higher education serves as the catalyst for increased connectivity in the Eurasian region and invited Russian students to study at Pakistani universities.
- Prof. Oleg Slobotchikov, Rector of the University of World Civilizations, underscored the need for building a new, sustainable model of international cooperation rooted in dialogue, education and civilizational understanding. He highlighted that the old geopolitical order has ended and commended the increasing ties between the youths of Russia and Pakistan. Both nations share unique cultural values, which serve to unite us.

4. Keynote Address and Strategic Outcomes

The keynote address was delivered by Senator Mushahid Hussain Syed, who framed Pakistan–Russia relations within the broader transformation of the global order.

Key points included:

- The shift of global power from West to East, with Eurasia emerging as the centre of gravity of the Global South

- Pakistan and Russia are strategic partners with no fundamental conflict of interests.
- The necessity of Eurasian multilateralism involving Pakistan, Russia, Central Asia, Turkey, and Iran
- The formal announcement of the Eurasian Connectivity Forum as an institutional platform focusing on:
 - Counter-terrorism
 - Trade, energy, and economic cooperation
 - Education, culture, and media
 - People-to-people connectivity

He also called for an annual Pakistan–Russia Strategic Dialogue led by opinion leaders, academics, and business communities.

5. Thematic Sessions

The Forum was conducted through four thematic sessions over two days, moderated by Dr. Roxolana Zigon, co-organizer of the Forum and Director of the Scientific Center for International Research at UWC.

The sessions addressed:

1. Russia - Pakistan Cooperation in a Non-Traditional Security Domain

Dr. Maria Sultan, highlighted the military connectivity between Pakistan and Russia, specifically joint military exercises as well as joint counter-terrorism activities. She emphasized the importance of protecting the identity of nations at home and abroad. Talking about human security, she noted that states need to protect economic security, health security, and prevent discrimination due to identity. She also noted that in the coming era, the digitization of human security would present a significant challenge.

Leonid Savin, underscored the importance of enhancing ties between Pakistan and Russia. He also highlighted the changes in the international environment, such as the emerging multi-polarity, the re-election of President Donald Trump in the US, as well as Russia's special military operation in Ukraine. He provided the possibility of Russia mediating between Pakistan and India. He also stated that Russia and Pakistan can work together to combat climate change, such as soil erosion and desertification and gave the idea of establishing an Emergency Center in Pakistan. He also advocated for increased labor migration from Pakistan to Russia.

Dr Roxolana Zigon highlighted the expansion of the concept of security away from the traditional understanding of the idea. She talked about the development of new security configurations in South Asia and advocated for increased collaboration between Russia and Pakistan in the non-traditional security domain. She stated that increased Pakistan-Russia ties do not have any hostile intentions, but are a consequence of the changing needs of the two nations, as well as the evolving geopolitical order.

2. Socio-Economic Stability — Pakistan-Russia Business Synergy: Expanding Economic Horizons

Ambassador of Pakistan to the Russian Federation, Faisal Niaz Tirmizi, stated that there is a natural connection between Pakistan and Russia. He noted that there is a lot of economic potential between Pakistan and Russia, highlighting the Russian offer to refurbish Pakistan Steel Mills. He also highlighted the potential of tourism and student exchanges for Russians in Pakistan.

Ambassador Andrei Baklanov. noted the unbalanced nature of trade between Pakistan and Russia as well as the difficulties generated by the sanctions. He highlighted that barter trade becomes difficulty due to the varied actors involved in the trade. He stated that the trade between the two countries is too modest and that one of the ways to overcome the unbalanced nature of trade is to include land and property in trade.

3. Comprehensive Regional Development & Connectivity

Dr. Maria Sultan, spoke regarding the challenges presented by the weapons left by the US in Afghanistan following its withdrawal in 2021. These weapons are being used by various terrorist groups residing within Afghanistan to commits acts of terror. She also highlighted the role of dug production in the Afghan regime as well as the misuse of humanitarian aid by the Taliban. She advocated for greater oversight of the Afghan aid process, a more inclusive government in Kabul, increased border security for Pakistan, and greater diplomatic engagement with regional and extra-regional allies for the Afghan issue.

Dr. Prokhor Tebin, noted the potential for increased bilateral trade between Pakistan and Russia. He stated that the two countries can expand their cooperation in other arenas as well such as in education, climate change. He proposed that trade countries in the Eurasian region needs to be expanded and diversified and expressed hope that the Pakistan-Russia Forums can continue. He advocated that the countries should move beyond barter economics and trade in local currencies.

Senator Mushahid Hussain, stated that the building blocks of the new global order are multilateralism and multi-polarity. He highlighted that Eurasian connectivity in education, media, counterterrorism and other fields will be the driving force of the Global South. He stated that there should be a regional approach towards Afghanistan in the face of shared challenges. Eurasian Connectivity Forum should act as the institutional framework for increased interaction.

He also proposed an Annual Strategic Dialogue between Russia and Pakistan, considering a similar world view as well as no divergent strategic interests.

4. Bridges Beyond Borders: People-To-People Cooperation & Expanding Youth Diplomacy

In the final session, Dr. Faisal Javaid emphasized that soft power is essential for transforming Pakistan–Russia relations from state-centric engagement to society-driven partnership, addressing long-standing perceptual gaps between the two countries. He highlighted academic diplomacy, cultural exchange, media cooperation, and youth engagement as core pillars for sustainable people-to-people connectivity. The presentation underscored that soft power complements strategic and economic ties by building trust, familiarity, and long-term societal bonds.

Dr. Shabana Fayyaz noted the role of culture and language as a tool for connection and understanding between two peoples. She highlighted that there are significant opportunities for education exchanges, joint academic programs between Pakistan and Russia. She also admired the role of Pakistani students in establishing ties with their Russian comrades and noted the tourism potential of both nations.

Dr. Irina N. Serenko presented a paper on joint media projects as a tool for strengthening Pakistan–Russia cooperation and noted the role of the Pakistani Business community in expanding Pakistan–Russia bilateral ties. She presented a newly published academic monograph on Pakistan–Russia relations to Senator Mushahid Hussain and Ambassador Faisal Niaz Tirmizi.

Dr. Yuri Samonkin noted the shared Pakistani and Russian presence in forums such as the SCO and that Pakistan is an important strategic and economic partner of Russia. He stated that there is a need for increased dialogue both at the diplomatic level as well as at the grassroots level, i.e. between youth. He highlighted the role of education and IT initiatives as bridges between the two countries. He stated that the two countries should create an online portal to share important documents so as to understand each other's strategic culture.

6. Media Coverage and Visibility

The Forum received extensive media coverage across Pakistani and Russian platforms, including major television networks, newspapers, digital media outlets, and international news agencies. Live recordings of sessions were broadcast and archived online, significantly enhancing the Forum's outreach and impact.

The Voice of the Time

MOSCOW: "The first-ever Russia-Pakistan Eurasian Forum 2025, organized by academic and research institutions from Pakistan and Russia, with support of both governments, convened in the Russian capital. The Forum focused on strengthening Russia-Pakistan relations, with special attention to non-traditional security challenges, people-to-people connectivity and regional cooperation in Eurasia.

Senator Mushahid Hussain, in his keynote speech at the Forum, discussed how cooperation in non-traditional security areas can contribute to economic stability, mutual trust, and people-to-people partnerships, highlighting new avenues for collaboration in a changing global environment. He said the global shift of power from West to East was evident and even President Trump's National Security Strategy has recognized this new reality, adding that Eurasia is the center of gravity of the rising Global South. He said Eurasian multilateralism would drive this multipolar world, with Pakistan, Russia, Iran, Turkey and the Central Asian Republics would drive Eurasian Multilateralism.

In this regard, he announced establishment of the Eurasian Connectivity Forum as the institutional foundation of Eurasian Multilateralism, since connectivity includes commerce, culture and people-to-people connectivity with media, academia and think tanks as key players. He said counter-terrorism, commerce and culture, education and energy, people-to-people connectivity would be key pillars of the Eurasian Connectivity Forum. Senator Mushahid Hussain also called for an annual Pakistan-Russian Strategic Dialogue led by opinion and business leaders, as in the new scenario, there is no fundamental conflict of interest between Pakistan and Russia, mentioning how Pakistan had a positive and balanced perspective on Ukraine, while Russia too remained neutral during Indian aggression against Pakistan, with both opposing any New Cold War.

He urged both governments to seize the moment to build a broader partnership between Islamabad and Moscow in a rapidly transforming regional and global scenario. Ambassador of Pakistan, Faisal Naz Tirmizi, Russian scholars, diplomats, experts on international relations participated in the forum.

10. Conclusion

The Pakistan–Russia Eurasian Forum 2025 successfully established a new institutional foundation for sustained dialogue, cooperation, and public diplomacy between Pakistan and Russia. It marked the beginning of a structured, people-centric, and policy-oriented engagement framework, positioning both countries as constructive partners in the evolving Eurasian and multipolar global order.

The Forum fulfilled its objectives by transforming dialogue into actionable frameworks, reinforcing trust, and laying the groundwork for long-term academic, cultural, economic, and strategic cooperation.
